

Overview

AI Ramp is an enterprise private cloud solution add on for Matrix-OS that allows IT to look and feel like a cloud service provider for their end users. This helps end users to easily access HPC resources and only pay for compute services as a service. AI Ramp also enables the IT organization to better control costs and manage assets while providing the latest technology as a service.

Management/Hypervisor
Department Billing

Storage / User Profiles

IaaS Bare-Metal Multi-Instance GPU Compute Nodes for workloads and projects

IaaS Bare-Metal Multi-
Instance Core GPU
Compute for machine
learning with big data
simulations

